

DESIGN FOR THE WELL-LIVED LIFE

OCTOBER 2006

HOUSE & GARDEN

Special Issue

The Romance of Lighting

U.S. $3.99
CANADA/FOREIGN $4.99

100 Best Chandeliers, Table & Floor Lamps
+ Showhouse Ideas for Your Home

THE RAGE FOR HIGH-CONCEPT FIXTURES HAS BROUGHT FRESH, YOUNG DESIGN STARS TO LIGHT

From left: TORD BOONTJE's natural aesthetic goes abstract in his Icarus fixture for Artecnic. $80, unicahome.com.

Maverick designer HARRY ALLEN teamed with art-glass outfit Esque Studio on a collection that includes this Grid Bubble lamp. From $4,000, Harry Allen Showroom, 212-529-7239, harryallendesign.com.

British phenom TOM DIXON's copper-lined dome pendant has a disco ball feel. Copper shade, $480, at Property, NYC, propertyfurniture.com.

Rising star TOKUJIN YOSHIOKA wraps an ethereal ribbon of light around his ToFU table lamp. $640, Yamagiwa USA, yamagiwausa.com.

Belgian designer MATILDE ALESSANDRA's poetic Smirne floor lamp comprises a fluorescent tube in an oblong glass shell. $1,290, at Property, NYC, 917-237-0123.

Brooklyn's MATT DILLING crafts tongue-in-cheek fixtures out of bent neon tubes in custom colors. Astor chandelier, $2,800, litebriteneon.com.

